ATF Handypacks

These provide a wide variety of conventional and useful ornamental designs. Carried in stock at your nearest ATF Branch.

> THE OLD DAYS, decorative spots were used for chapter headings, tail pieces and for ornamentation on the covers of books, booklets and pamphlets, Decorative devices were used in announcements, circulars, menus and folders.

> Today, we need no type decoration for catalogs, house magazines folders and annual corporation reports, which are profusely illustrated with halftones. But, we do need decoration to embellish our plain-type announcements, folders, booklets, pamphlers, menus and circulars.

> As a result of this lack of type decoration, there has been a disrinct loss in color, interest and character of the bulk of our printing which does not carry halftones. The average plaintype printed piece without decoration doesn't have a spark of attraction to interest the recipient.
